The Snowbird Poems

Robert Kroetsch

0-88864-426-4, paper, $24.95

“These are dangling conversations, hints, and mere footprints in the sand of an endless shoreline. This is, in some sense, a collection of allusions.”

—Anne Burke, Prairie Journal Trust

*The Forgotten Commissioner:
Sir William Mildmay and the Anglo-
French Commission of 1750-1755*

Enid Robbie

“ . . . Robbie sets forth a carefully constructed narrative of his [Mildmay] diplomatic work . . . the story that emerges has a richness of detail that no prior study of the commission even approaches.”

—The Historian

Folk Furniture of Canada's Doukhobors, Hutterites, Mennonites & Ukrainians

Michael Rowan and John Fleming

0-88864-418-3, cloth, $60.00

“[T]he text and the pictures here are of a piece, and the artlessness and simplicity of the tools of daily living are presented with a harsh wonder that is astonishing. Simple decoration includes colors that are understated and a modesty that bespeaks a world of piety. . . . As we leaf through this, is it possible that there can be a luxury in such simplicity? If so, it is reflected in this delicious volume.”

—Louis Armour, RALPH Magazine

*The Collected Short Stories of

“With an array of pictures of Zimbabwe’s finest and supreme sculpture work, the book Zimbabwe Stone Sculpture is set to contribute immensely to the sculpture industry in the country . . . The art is direct, powerfully humane and is extremely beautiful and stunning.”

—Sunday Mirror, Zimbabwe

Coast of Slaves

Thorkild Hansen

9-988550-31-6, paper, $41.95

This volume is about the history of Danish/Norwegian participation in the trans-Atlantic slave trade.

Constitutional Democracy in Africa, Vols. 1-5

Ben Nwabueze

9-78029-432-5, cloth, $400.00

This five-volume work received a Special Commendation in the 2005 Noma Award for Publishing in Africa. The jury cited the work as “A magisterial and authoritative treatment of all aspects of constitutional democracy in Africa. The author cares very deeply about democracy thriving in Africa, but never weakens his objectivity in assessing its history or prospects. It places the author securely as one of Africa’s great scholars.”

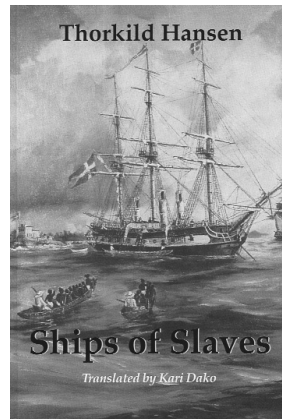

North of Everything

William Beard and Jerry White, editors

0-88864-390-X, cloth, $49.95

“Their edited collection has thirty-two contributors, several of which are major figures in Canadian film scholarship, including Kay Armatage . . . Seth Feldman . . . Geoff Pevere and Robin Wood. But what is particularly pleasing about this collection is its wide range of contributors, including Americans. . . . [North of Everything] will help students of Canadian cinema understand a bi-national cinematic culture that is rich but unknown to most of the world.”

—George Melnyk, The American Review of Canadian Studies

Ships of Slaves

Thorkild Hansen

9-988550-75-8, paper, $38.95

This volume narrates the middle passage of the slave trade, from the time the remadors at the beach east of Christiansborg coerced the slaves onto the boat.
